Both nationally and globally, immigration is a hot topic. UD alumna Katy Lewis has been an immigration attorney for more than 10 years, representing individuals on a wide array of immigration matters before U.S. Citizenship & Immigration Services, the Board of Immigration Appeals, and the 9th Circuit Court of Appeals – the highest level of appeal in the federal court system before the U.S. Supreme Court.

Join us on Zoom on Nov. 15 to hear about the interesting experiences and opportunities that led her to a career in law and learn more about the important work she does!

Monday, Nov. 15

AAP Common Hour: 12:25 – 1:25 p.m.

Zoom link: udel.zoom.us/j/93467542801

This Zoom presentation will be broadcast live in CEB 928 for Wilmington students, in 761 ETB for Dover students, and 142 JTC for Georgetown students.